LA PUBLIC SERVICE
COMMISSION

In Re: Application for Approval of Power Purchase Agreements and for Cost Recovery

MOTION FOR INTERVENTION AND INCLUSION ON SERVICE LIST

NOW BEFORE THE HONORABLE COMMISSION, comes Magnolia Power LLC, ("Magnolia Power"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Kindle Energy LLC ("Kindle Energy"), a party in interest, who respectfully submits this Motion for Intervention in the captioned proceeding pursuant to Rule 10 of the Louisiana Public Service Commission ("Commission") Rules of Practices and Procedures as follows:

1.

Kindle Energy is a portfolio company of The Blackstone Group, Inc., focused on the investment in, management of, and optimization of conventional power generation assets in North America. Kindle Energy formed Magnolia Power on February 13, 2019 for the express purpose of developing and owning electric generation facilities within the State of Louisiana.

2.

1803 Electric Cooperative, Inc. ("1803") conducted a Request for Proposals ("RFP") for long-term capacity and energy resources in compliance with the LPSC's Market Based Mechanism General Order (the "MBM Order"),¹ which supplements the LPSC's 1983 General

By Hand

Order.² At the conclusion of the RFP, 1803 selected a portfolio of six (6) Power Purchase Agreements (“PPAs”) with five (5) power providers (the “1803 Portfolio”). Magnolia Power’s project selected as part of the 1803 Portfolio.

3.

At the conclusion of the RFP, Magnolia Power entered into a binding PPA with 1803 to supply a significant portion of the 1803 Portfolio.

4.

The Commission published notice of this docket in Official Bulletin #1241, dated March 19, 2021. Interventions are permitted within 15 days of the date of the publication. Therefore, this Intervention is timely.

5.

Rule 10 of the LPSC Rules of Practice and Procedure provides that any party actually in interest may appear in a proceeding before the LPSC when intervening timely.

6.

Magnolia Power wishes to participate in this docket as a Party in Interest and not with full intervenor status. This Intervention will not prejudice any other party or unduly delay the proceedings.
