LPSC STAFF'S UNOPPOSED MOTION TO UPSET PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE

NOW COMES, through undersigned counsel, the Louisiana Public Service Commission ("LPSC" or "Commission") Staff who hereby moves as follows:

1.

On September 7, 2022, Commission Staff filed an Unopposed Motion to Upset Procedural Schedule and Adopt Procedural Schedule, requesting a deadline of November 2, 2022 to file its Report and Recommendation, including Direct Testimony, and that a Status Conference be scheduled on November 17, 2022. On September 8, 2022, Administrative Law Judge Guillot granted Commission Staff's motion.

2.

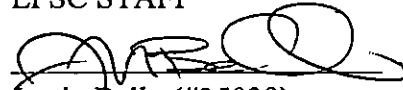

Commission Staff needs additional time within which to complete discovery in this proceeding, which will necessitate upsetting the current procedural schedule. As a result, Commission Staff respectfully requests that the current procedural schedule be upset, and that a new procedural schedule be adopted at the status conference scheduled for November 15, 2022.

3.

A representative for Abby Plantation Estates Sanitary Sewerage Corporation d/b/a Louisiana Sewer Utilities has been contacted and has consented to this motion and the procedural schedule set forth herein.

WHEREFORE, Commission Staff prays that the current procedural schedule be upset, and that a new procedural schedule be adopted at the status conference scheduled for November 15, 2022.

Respectfully Submitted,
LPSC STAFF
