To Whom It May Concern:

I Michael J. Lancelin, Sr. I am requesting to close my authority (# 6290 -A).

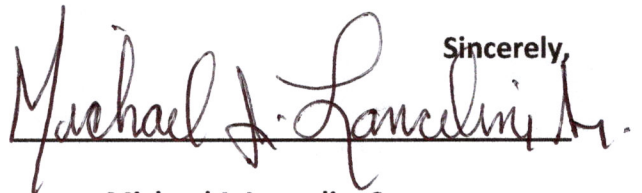

First: Because of serious health issues, that has hindered me to perform all that is required to maintain said business.

Second: I will be Seventy Two (72) years old soon and want to spend as much time as God spare with my family, grand and great grandchildren.

I would like to thank the Louisiana Public Service Commission (entire staff) for their professional and outstanding services , that each and everyone has rendered to me throughout the years.

I do not have any liens or outstanding fees or fines that is due. I am also aware that I am still responsible for any fees that come due has to be paid , until my authority closing cancellation is approved.

If I am not available when this becomes in effect, any monies that are due will be paid from my final expense by my Estate Executor or Beneficiary.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Lancelin, Sr.
